

RE: Sinclair's airing of "Stolen Honor".

This is outrageous. If we had not allowed media conglomerates to take over so many stations, I would fine with them airing whatever they want. The problem is Sinclair's market share is way too large to allow them advocate for one of the political parties. This is an in kind donation to the Bush Campaign and it is illegal. It is clearly within the FCC's charter to require that Sinclair either not show the movie, or allow equal time to the Kerry administration.
